

Be prepared for the end of Windows 10 support today

Windows 10 support will come to an end on

October 14, 2025

End of support is the date after which Microsoft will stop providing security updates and technical support for an older Windows versions.

Now is the perfect time to consider switching to Windows 11 Pro

Wondering "why?", here are 4 reasons why you should switch to Windows 11 Pro:

Security

58% drop in security incidents

- more security for less
- security right out-of-the-box

IT management

99,7% application compatibility

- easy to manage
- fast, automated deployment and updates

Device

50% faster workflows and collaboration

- tools for every task and talent
- consume less, last longer

User experience matters

Increase employee productivity by up to 15%

- enables exceptional working anywhere
- accessibility for all, impact for more

The Forester Total Economic Impact™ study found that devices running Windows 11:

Reduce the risk of a successful security attack

Increase the productivity of security and IT teams and end users

Reduce the cost of supporting legacy technologies

Upgrading from Windows 10 to Windows 11 Pro will not only allow you to grow your business, but above all it will take care of your security.

Don't wait until the end of Windows 10 support on October 14, 2025, think about replacing your device today!